

Graduate Certificates: Get Started This Summer

Global Partnership Program 2025

Develop new skills and build expertise in a specialized area to advance your career.

How Do I Earn a Harvard Extension School (HES) Graduate Certificate?

1. Complete two on-campus Harvard Summer School (HSS) courses toward a certificate.
2. Complete two online HES courses during the Fall/Spring toward a certificate.
3. Request your certificate!

Contact Information

Kathleen Rodriguez Dietzel
Assistant Director,
International Partnerships and Outreach

DCE Global Office
Harvard University Division of Continuing
Education 51 Brattle Street, 7th Floor
Cambridge, MA 02138
DCEGlobal@FAS.Harvard.edu
<https://DCE.Harvard.edu/Global>

Six Options for Graduate Certificates Beginning Summer 2025:

Corporate Sustainability & Innovation:

- MGMT 5015 Applied Corporate Sustainability
- MGMT 5027 Emerging Markets in the Global Economy

Business Communication:

- MGMT 3012 The Art of Communication
- MGMT 4225 Negotiation and Organizational Conflict Resolution

Organizational Behavior:

- MGMT 4150 Leadership
- MGMT 4225 Negotiation and Organizational Conflict Resolution

Innovation and Entrepreneurship:

- MGMT 5425 Design Thinking and Innovation
- Summer 2 (Choose a Skills & Tools class from the list)

Project Management:

- MGMT 5030 Project Management
- MGMT 4225 Negotiation and Organizational Conflict Resolution

An alternative pathway is:

- MGMT 4150 Leadership
- MGMT 5030 Project Management

International Relations:

- Students can choose from multiple pathways: take one class in each 3-Week Session I and II, or enroll in two full 7-Week Summer courses.